

Key Environmental Resources

Transportation

The project would change some travel patterns in the area and improve access to I-25 from Pueblo West. Some travel would be detoured during construction.

Mitigation

Construction will be planned to minimize disruption. Advanced notice will be provided to emergency service providers and detours will minimize out of direction travel.

