The Pueblo Regional Development Plan, submitted to the Pueblo Area Council of Governments (PACOG), is a vision for the future development of the region.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Many opportunities were provided to receive suggestions and comments on the draft plan during the 15-month period from August 1995 to October 1996.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Plan provides for future development to the extent that it meets the Region’s capacity for new development. Planning professional staff was designated to implement the Plan.

RESOURCES

The Plan is supported by the professional staff of the Regional Planning and Development Commission (RPDC).

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Plan is supported by the professional staff of the Regional Planning and Development Commission (RPDC).

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

The Plan is supported by the professional staff of the Regional Planning and Development Commission (RPDC).