(Right to the Record) Birth, death and fetal death certificates are confidential in the State of Colorado. These records are not public records and, therefore, are not subject to the Freedom of Information Act.

The registrant (person named on certificate). Current spouse. Marriage certificate is required or for common-law marriage, a notarized affidavit of common-law marriage, joint income tax returns or insurance policies can be accepted. (in the case of common-law marriage, all documents must clearly state: husband and wife.) Ex-spouse. Must present proof of direct and tangible interest. Marriage certificate is not acceptable (e.g. insurance policy, letter from SSA). Parent/Co-parent. Must be listed on birth certificate. Stepparent. Your marriage certificate to a parent that is listed on the birth record is required. Legal guardian. Original certified court order proving custody is required. Grandparents/Great grandparents. Birth certificate(s) proving relationship is required. Paternal grandparents if father listed. Siblings/Half siblings. Birth certificate listing at least one of the same parents is required. Children/Grandchildren/Great grandchildren. Birth certificate(s) proving relationship is required. Legal representative/Paralegals. Proof of client relationship is required, as well as proof of the client's relationship to the registrant. Consular Corps/Consulate offices. Must present appropriate credentials verifying association with the consulate. Adoption Agencies. Certified court orders proving custody is required. Genealogists. Notarized signed release from immediate family member is required as well as proof of the family member's relationship. Certificate marked "For Genealogical Use Only". In-laws/aunts/uncles/nephews/nieces/ cousins. Only eligible for birth records of deceased relatives that are over 50 years old and must present a copy of the registrant's death certificate. Recruiters. Birth certificate can only be issued upon a signed release from inductee or they can have a DD372 (birth verification) completed. Governmental agencies (SSA, Human Services, etc.) No additional documentation needed – fees may apply.

Identification and Proof of Relationship is Required, such as a birth certificate or marriage certificate. If you cannot provide acceptable identification, it is suggested that you ask a spouse, parent, grandparent, sibling, or adult child, who can provide Identification and Proof of Relationship to request certificate.
