County Candidate Responsibilities and Liabilities

Candidate Definition

COLORADO CONSTITUTION ARTICLE XXVIII, Section 2 (2)

"Candidate" means any person who seeks nomination or election to any state or local public office that is to be voted on in this state at any primary election, general election, school district election, special district election, or municipal election. "Candidate" also includes a judge or justice of any court of record who seeks to be retained in office pursuant to the provisions of section 25 of article VI. A person is a candidate for election if the person has publicly announced an intention to seek election to public office or retention of a judicial office and thereafter has received a contribution or made an expenditure in support of the candidacy. A person remains a candidate for purposes of this Article so long as the candidate maintains a registered candidate committee. A person who maintains a candidate committee after an election cycle, but who has not publicly announced an intention to seek election to public office in the next or any subsequent election cycle, is a candidate for purposes of this article.

Candidate Filings

Please ensure that you are familiar with these rules and laws prior to submitting your candidate affidavit. You may download Colorado's campaign finance rules and laws as well as become familiar with the online campaign finance disclosure system, Transparency in Contribution and Expenditure Reporting (TRACER), by accessing the Colorado Secretary of State website (www.sos.state.co.us). Helpful information will be found in:

- Colorado Constitution, Article XXVIII
- Title 1, Article 45, Colorado Revised Statutes (Fair Campaign Practices Act)
- Colorado Secretary of State's Rules Concerning Campaign and Political Finance

Campaign and Political Finance

All campaign finance disclosure reports and committee registrations are handled through the online campaign finance disclosure system, TRACER, on the Secretary of State's website: www.sos.state.co.us.

You may contact the Secretary of State Campaign Finance Support team by email at cpfhelp@sos.state.co.us or by telephone at (303) 894-2200, extension 6383.

Municipal Candidates

Municipal candidates should contact their municipal clerk's office.

Where to File a County Candidate Affidavit and Committee Registration

All county, special district and school board candidates, candidate committees, issue committees, political committees, independent expenditure committees, and small donor committees file with the Secretary of State.

Campaign Finance via Colorado Secretary of State:

<https://www.sos.state.co.us/pubs/elections/CampaignFinance/home.html>

Timeliness

All filings must be submitted within the time allotted by Colorado Law. Failure to file reports on time may result in $50 per day penalties. Please see the Secretary of State's website (www.sos.state.co.us) for current year election and campaign finance filing calendars.

BALLOT ACCESS for County Candidates

During the General Election (even-numbered) years there are four ways for a candidate to get their name on the ballot:

On which ballot will the Candidate's name appear?

1. Political Party Candidate Nomination

“Neither the secretary of state nor any county clerk and recorder shall place on the official general election ballot the name of any person as a candidate of any major political party who has not been nominated in accordance with the provisions of this article, or who has not been affiliated with the major political party for the period of time required by section 1-4-601 C.R.S., or who does not meet residency requirements for the office, if any. The information found on the voter registration record of the county of current or previous residence of the person seeking to be placed on the ballot is admissible as prima facie evidence of compliance with this article.” 1-4-101(3) C.R.S.
